BOARD OF PATRONS

Nurturing and nourishing young minds is a mammoth task. The holistic development of the children happens only when there is conducive atmosphere for growth and development of the mind. Our schools must become entre of excellence, not only in academics buy also in Sports, Games, Cultural, Literary and Sundry other areas. The overall development can happen when there is a driving force behind it. The Principal and staff should, therefore, be potential force which would in turn motivate and actualize our goals and aspirations.

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,
Parents and Members of the
DPS Makronia Family,

It is with immense pride and joy that we extend our heartfelt greetings to all of you on the occasion of the publication of our school newsletter. This platform not only highlights the vibrant activities and accomplishments of our students and staff but also reflects the spirit of innovation, dedication, and excellence that define DPS Makronia. At DPS Makronia, we strive to provide an environment that nurtures holistic development. Each success story, every creative expression, and the shared moments in these pages serve as a testament to our collective efforts to build a community where every individual thrives. We express our gratitude to the editorial team for their hard work in compiling this newsletter and to our parents for their unwavering support. To our students—your achievements and creativity are the true essence of this publication, To the Principal DPS MAKRONIA for his guidance and team work, I hope that you all will keep shining and striving for excellence in all your endeavors. May we continue to grow as a family and uphold the values of discipline, perseverance and service. Let this newsletter serve as an inspiration for us to aim higher and dream bigger.

Warm regards,

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students, Parents and Staff,

As we embark on an exciting new chapter at DPS Makronia, I am filled with pride and optimism for the strides we have made in redefining education and holistic development. Our commitment to fostering a dynamic and innovative learning environment has been the driving force behind our accomplishments this term.

This year, we have introduced cutting-edge innovations in our curriculum, integrating technology with teaching to make learning more engaging and effective. Our focus on digital tools and creative methodologies is empowering students to think critically and adapt to the demands of a fast-evolving world.

Sports not only build physical strength but also instill teamwork, leadership and resilience qualities we strive to nurture in every learner. In the realm of sports, our students have displayed remarkable talent and discipline, earning accolades at inter-school and state-level competitions.

Academically, we have ventured into a new era by adopting interdisciplinary approaches and emphasizing experiential learning. Our initiatives aim to create thinkers, innovators, and lifelong learners who are ready to lead in their respective fields. These milestones are a testament to the hard work of our students, the unwavering dedication of our teachers, and the strong partnership with our parents and unconventional support received from our respected directors Er. Ritul Saraf and Mrs. Garima Saraf for making this journey full of experiments, Let us continue to work together to ensure that DPS Makronia remains a hub of excellence and inspiration.

Thank you for your continued support in making our vision a reality.

Warm regards,
Mr. Chandrakant Sharma
Principal

Editorial Message

As we wrap up another vibrant chapter in Delhi Public School's journey, it brings us immense joy to present this edition of our School Newsletter. This platform is a reflection of the incredible energy, talent, and creativity that thrive within our school community.

Being a Human

Beyond all worldly pleasures,
Something lacks in you,
Except a few,
Instead, the opposite you do;
Considering yourself every time-
Is not a human definition,
Leaving a few,
There left the reason for your creation;
They want to reach heights,
But they think like a rodent,
And, sometimes they feel-
They became omnipotent;
Being selfless-
Can't be a beast's duty,
You must fulfil it,
To get the real beauty;
You will glorify
with happiness and peace,
and reach the potential,
By spreading humour and
love to each;
You must get in yourself-
Something new,
Because the opposite of it
Is going to perish you;
Ignite the fullest potential-
Serving the reason,
Of you,
For being a human!-

पापा हमारे घर की शान

पापा हमारे घर की शान,
उनके बिना जीवन वीरान ।
पापा में बसती सब की जान,
वही हमारे भगवान ।
उनके कंधों पर घर का भार,
फिर भी वो करते हमसे प्यार ।
जिम्मेदारी है लाखों सामने,
चला उन्हीं से परिवार ।
रखना हमेशा उनका ध्यान,
करना हमेशा उनका सम्मान ।
पापा हमारे घर की शान,
उनके बिना जीवन वीरान ।

Mischief Managed

A dare, so careless, a step too bold,
The fun was short, but it made me cry.
The world turned cold, I hit the ground,
The silence screamed, no way around.
Mistakes I thought were far from sight,
Now every crack shows what's not right.
But even from the mess, a spark remained,
A lesson learned, the page now turned.
Step by step, I built it back,
With every scar, I faced the lack.
Not who I was, nor who I'll be,
But stronger now, I've set me free.
The past is gone, the cost is paid,
A wiser me stands unafraid. For every fall, there's more to find
A tougher heart, a sharper mind.

Captive Love

They were playing war with a weekend evening,
I was playing with my new family members. A Golden Retrievers breed dog.
We were playing on terrace . He had been with us for the last two weeks.
Suddenly I saw something suspicious on sky there was an incandescent object.
When I saw that object, I suddenly got fainted. When I woke up,
I was in my bedroom along with my dog. I had noticed that I can feel something unreal. I was able to read my dog brain.
It was an extraordinary moment. On the other hand I was feeling sad because I had read my dog brain, which was full of sadness and in need of it's mother.
I can relate with him because whenever , I got separated from my mother so,
I feel same as he felt. On the very next day, I returned him back to his mother.
And on that moment I cried because as I separated from his mother he still wants me to live with him.
Moral: For your sake don't separate anyone from their parent's love.

THE HIDDEN MAGIC OF STUDENTS LIFE

Student life is often described as a golden period of learning and growth, but there's an air of mystery to it that makes it even more fascinating. Every school has its secrets the quiet corner of the library where dreams are born, the old tree that has witnessed countless friendship and the classrooms that hold unspoken stories of courage and transformation. Behind the routine of lessons and exams students embark on a journey of self-discovery. Friendship form, challenges arise and moments of unexpected magic unfold. Its not just about books and grades; its about the silent lessons taught by life itself the resilience gained from failure, the joy of shared laughter and the courage to dream big. In the end the true mystery of student life lies in its ability to shape us in ways we cant's see until much later.
Perhaps that's why we look back on these days with both nostalgia and wonder forever grateful for the secrets they revealed.

My School Promise

Each day i'll do my best and I want do my less.
My work will always please me,
And I want accept a miss.
I'll colour very carefully
My writing will be neat
And I will not be happy.
Till will my papers are complete
I'll always do my home work
And try my best on every test
I won't forget my promise
To do my very best.
